

Queen of Heaven Homeless Ministry (Labre) Parental Permission Form

We grant our child (print student's name) _____ permission to take part in the Queen of Heaven Homeless Ministry. While we understand that every effort is made for a safe environment, we acknowledge that any activity of this sort involves a degree of risk of injury or illness, and that our child is participating in the activity at his/her own risk. We understand that Queen of Heaven Church's only responsibility is to make reasonable efforts to contact us and seek appropriate care for our child.

We and our child, in consideration of being permitted to participate in this activity, assume all the risks associated with participation in this activity, and specifically release, discharge, indemnify and hold harmless Queen of Heaven Church and the Cleveland Diocese and its officers, directors, members, volunteers, employees, constituents, and any other persons or parties connected with this ministry in any way whatsoever, jointly and severally, from and against any and all blame or liability (including negligence) for any injury, illness, misadventure, harm, loss, inconvenience or damage to person or property sustained as a result of taking part in this activity and all activities and events associated with it, including travel to and from this activity.
