

Communion To The Sick

This ministry is commissioned to bring the Eucharist to the homebound, sick and hospitalized of our community. This ministry is open to commissioned Eucharist Ministers.

Eucharistic Ministers

Eucharistic Ministers are entrusted to assist the priest in the distribution of Holy Communion, either at Mass or in homes/nursing homes. This ministry is open to fully initiated Catholics who have a deep love for the Eucharist.

Hospitality Ministry (Ushers & Greeters)

These ministers assist in welcoming the assembly at weekend and Holy Day Masses, and assist in collecting offerings, coordinating the presentation of gifts and distributing materials as needed. Open to all interested teens and adults.

Housekeeping Ministry

Keeps the worship area in the best possible condition. All parishioners are welcome to help in routine cleaning chores (dusting, vacuuming, etc) one Saturday morning a month.

Lector Ministry

The lector is commissioned to proclaim the word in our liturgical worship. This ministry is open to fully initiated Catholics who have a deep love for the Holy Scripture and for the listening assembly.

Linen Care Ministry

The washing and caring of our Eucharistic linens is a prayerful meditation. Washing/starching/pressing linens are done in the home.

Music Ministry

Music is an essential component of good liturgy. Members bring their talents to lead the community in prayer.

Adult Choir: Provides music for Sunday Masses and other parish services. Practices are held each Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

Sent Forth Choir: Provides contemporary music for Sunday Life Teen Mass at 5:30 p.m. Practices are held each Sunday at 3:00-4:30 p.m. in the church.

Offertory Gifts

All families of Queen of Heaven are invited to participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass by volunteering to take up offertory gifts. Families contact any usher prior to the beginning of Mass to volunteer.
